

Production Operative Vacancy

Are you an enthusiastic and reliable production operative who enjoys working in a busy environment? Would you like to be part of a company that helps improve people's lives through innovative sensory products?

At Rompa, we are the market leader in Snoezelen sensory equipment and solutions. Due to continued growth, we are looking for a hardworking production operative to join our friendly operations team on a full time basis.

What will you be doing.....

- Assembling soft play items to the highest standard and within the lead times dictated by the production schedule.
- Ensuring all wrapping and packing is carried out to the highest standard and within the lead times dictated by the production schedule.
- Ensuring daily worksheets and quality sheets are completed accurately.
- Using basic hand tools such as drills, glue guns and staple guns.
- Carrying out any maintenance to keep machinery/tools in good working order.
- Ad hoc delivery of customer products

What are we looking for.....

- Experience within a manufacturing or warehouse environment is preferred but not essential, as full training will be provided
- Ability to use basic hand tools.
- Ability to interpret designs and engineering drawing.
- Excellent attention to detail and strives for high quality levels in all areas of work.
- Holds a clean UK driving licence to support local customer deliveries.

What do we offer.....

- Full training on the assembly processes for all our products.
- Competitive salary and employee benefits.
- A supportive and friendly team environment.
- A varied and rewarding role where you will make a genuine difference to our customers.

If you are eager to contribute and progress in a successful production team, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity - we would love to hear from you!

No agencies please.

Should you be interested in the above role, please apply to Lisa Dunks (lisad@rompa.com) with a covering letter, CV and current salary details.
